Dear Member of the International Association of Penal Law,

The International Association of Penal Law (AIDP) continues to actively operate to promote international exchange of knowledge and information in the field of criminal law, criminal justice and human rights. This year, a number of activities such as colloquia, research activities, etc. will be organized by the Association or its National Groups. You will be kept informed by the website, the email alerts, and the newsletters issued on a regular basis (www.penal.org).

We need your support to continue our action. To renew your membership, just click on the following link or copy it on your web explorer:

<http://www.penal.org/adhesion/adhesion2?lang=en&method=renouveler>

You will be able to pay online or by any other means proposed on the website. The login and password allowing you to enter the secure pages are on your membership card. If you have lost it, just click on "lost password?" or proceed as if you were a new member.

Do it right now ! If you defer, you may not receive the next issue of the International Review of Penal Law to be published soon. In just a click, you will renew both your membership and your subscription to the Review.

If you have already received a call for dues directly from your National Group, follow the instructions from the Group for the payment of the AIDP membership. This may be the case in particular for members from Austria, France, Italy and United States.

In addition, the secretariat has now established in Paris, which should eventually improve its day-to-day operation. Please contact us preferably by email at: secretariat@penal.org or alternatively by mail: 12 rue Charles Fourier F-75013 PARIS.

INSTRUCTIONSPersonal details

- ✓ Fill in legibly in capital letters your personal details.
- ✓ It is necessary to provide an email address, as information on the Association's activities are disseminated by electronic mail.

Membership Type

Benefactor Member: You wish to provide extra financial support to the Association. You will receive a Membership card which can be used as a certificate for tax purposes.

Collective Member: Universities, associations, institutes, etc.

National Group : AIDP/IAPL members have established in numerous countries a National Group, which carries out its own scientific activities. Each National Group, in addition to the fees for each individual members, have to pay to the AIDP/IAPL a membership fee which entitles the national group to participate in the Board of Directors and to receive two copies of each issue of the International Review of Penal Law.

Young Penalist : AIDP/IAPL members under the age of 35 may join the Young Penalist Group, which carries out its own activities and elect representatives to the organs of the AIDP/IAPL.

Joining the National Group of your country of residence: If you tick in this option, we will submit to the National Group of your country of residence your contact details. It will keep you informed of the scientific activities of the National Group, and may claim a specific membership fee (usually modest). Check online (www.penal.org) the existence of a National Group in your country and the contact details.

Reduced-fee countries: If you are residing in a country listed on the "reduced-fee" country list, you will be entitled to full membership, including subscription to the International Review of Penal Law, for a limited membership fee. You can check the list on the AIDP/IAPL website www.penal.org, then click on "about us" > "membership".

Payment instructions

By check : Join your check to your membership form and mail it to : AIDP secretariat BP 60118 F- 33008 Bordeaux Cedex (France)
