

LL.M. IN U.S. AND GLOBAL BUSINESS LAW FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAWYERS

Suffolk University Law School, Boston, Massachusetts

in cooperation with Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Law Budapest, Hungary

July 12 – July 24, 2009

"I never thought I would ever have time to complete an LL.M. degree. This program made my dream a reality."

– Tranquil Suaverdez Salvador III,
partner at RMBSA, the Philippines

"Every one of us from all these different countries found something special in this program that was important for every day practice in our home countries. The exchange of ideas in class was as much of a learning experience as the lectures."

– Maxim A. Zgodko, partner at Ackermann Bellmer, Russia

SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

- Established in 1906
- Fifth largest law school in the U.S.
- Accredited by the American Bar Association
- Member, Association of American Law Schools

Earn a U.S. LL.M. degree in Budapest, Hungary, from Suffolk Boston, without taking a year off.

EÖTVÖS LORÁND UNIVERSITY (ELTE), one of the oldest universities in Hungary, was established in 1635 by Cardinal Peter Pazmany, the archbishop of Esztergom. A major step in the development of Eötvös Loránd University was the establishment of the Faculty of Law in 1667. The Faculty of Law is located in the center of Budapest's financial and commercial district and ranks as the largest law school in Hungary.

PROGRAM AND SCHEDULE

Sunday, July 12: Orientation

Monday, July 13: Classes begin

Saturday, July 18 and Sunday, July 19:
No classes held

Thursday, July 23: Closing Reception

Friday, July 24: Classes end

The program will be offered each summer during a consecutive two-week period and consists of five days of all-day classes, Monday through Friday of each week.

Assignments and course materials will be distributed in advance of the session. Classes will be taught primarily by way of case analysis and discussion.

During the academic year, candidates may enroll in online courses and complete in-depth research projects.

BUDAPEST COURSES

JULY 12–JULY 24, 2009

Entering 2009

Candidate Curriculum

- U.S. Law and Cross-Cultural Legal Methods – Dennis Campbell, Esquire and Professor Dr. Attila Harmathy
- Contracts and Commercial Transactions in the U.S. – Professor Herbert Lemelman
- Multinational Business Transactions – Virginia Greiman, Esquire

Returning 2007 & 2008 Candidate Curriculum

- Complex Corporate Litigation: Principles & Practices – Professor Michael Rustad
- U.S. Federal Securities Regulation – Associate Professor Jeffrey Lipshaw
- Multinational Business Transactions – Virginia Greiman, Esquire

TUITION

Tuition for the July 12–24, 2009, LL.M. session in Budapest is USD $625 per credit for a total of USD $3,750 for six credits. Students may take fewer than six credits.

LODGING IN BUDAPEST

Lodging is offered in a variety of hotels, at a range of prices and comfort levels, all within walking distance of the Law Faculty.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

The language of instruction for the LL.M. program is English. Candidates must possess a strong ability in spoken and written English.

ONLINE APPLICATIONS ARE NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR SUMMER 2009.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications for admission to the July 12–24, 2009 session, with all supporting documents and a $1200 deposit, must be received at Suffolk University Law School by May 15, 2009 in order to secure your place in the program.

For further information please contact: Suffolk University Law School Office of Graduate and International Programs at budapest@suffolk.edu.

Apply online at: www.law.suffolk.edu/international-llm

